

MOLAM E-Waste Recycling Interview Questions

1. How long is MOLAM been in business?
2. What motivated you to start this company?
3. What agencies/businesses provide most of your e-waste?
4. What is the percentage of e-waste that schools provide?
5. What types of materials are recovered from computers and other types of e-waste?
6. What precautions do you take to ensure that a company's information is wiped from a computer's hard drive?
7. What toxic materials are in computers and how are they handled?
8. What e-waste contains the most toxic chemicals?
9. What safety measures do you take for your employees?
10. Are the recovered materials recycled or down cycled?
11. What laws or regulations does your company have to follow?
12. How are you sure that the companies that you sell the recovered material to handle the waste appropriately?
13. Do you have any innovations planned for the future?